

ROTAE CONFUSIONIS

Chor. Paul Boizot, sometime before 2016. Music "Rotae Confusionis", by Rondellus (Estonia) from the album Sabbatum (A Medieval Tribute To Black Sabbath). The songs are all sung in Latin. This is their version of Wheels Of Confusion. It does not look easy buy now, but this track is on youtube at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=mwErd30O4Xk>.

Formation; open circle. Rhythm 4/4. Steps are 2 beats (s =slow) or 1 beat (q = quick). The dance crosses the music. It is similar to Sta Dhio or Pogonishte but with two extra slow steps in the middle.

Measure 1; Arms W or possibly close-hold (forearm over forearm, similar to Hanter Dro) $\circ \rightarrow$ sR s, Lxb q, sR q;

Measure 2; $\circ \uparrow$ L s, $\circ \downarrow$ R s,

Measure 3; $\circ \rightarrow$ Lxf s not crossing much, sR s, Lxf s.
